

DID YOU KNOW ?

7000 DIFFERENT KINDS OF APPLES ARE GROWN ALL AROUND THE GLOBE!

There are more than 7000 types of apple species in the world and 2,500 types apple species are grown in the United States.

Granny Smith Apple was the first grown apple in Australia by Mary Ann Smith in 1867. Their sweet-tart flavor and crisp texture make them an apple that is as wonderful for cooking and baking as it is to eat out of hand.

The best varieties of apple seedlings are produced in red, yellow, and green colors with sweet and sour flavors.
