

Does Mountain Dew contain orange juice?

Mountain dew has orange juice in minimal quantity as one of the ingredients in the form of concentrated juice. Concentration is done by removing water from orange juice and used by adding water to the frozen concentrate. Even though Mountain dew has a minimal percentage of orange juice, its dominant ingredient remains carbonated water and high-fructose corn syrup (HFCS). Mountain Dew is a 12-ounce soda with 170 calories and 46 grams of sugar.
